"Acclaimed songwriter, singer and Steinway & Sons piano artist, Jeanne Newhall dances freely between folk, pop, r&b, country, and jazz with a classically-trained musician's ear. Her explorations reveal themselves in her distinctive emotional voice that gets to the very heart and soul of a lyric and the immaculately nuanced notes of her piano. Her music presents a myriad of musical gems that defy glib classifications and just fall into the essential music category." — Alan Cackett

As a composer of words and music, a vocalist and a classically trained pianist, with over 300 songs available for downloads and streaming from her 23 CDs, Newhall has always had a passion for new experiences and the fresh directions they can bring. Her explorations have led her to the realms of folk, jazz and R&B—even hip hop—and rock and pop, expanding her musical universe and revealing themselves in her warm, rich vocals, lyrical vocabulary and the immaculately nuanced notes of her piano. Common through the warp and weft of all her changes and adventures and endeavors is an enduring sense of spirit. Raised on a farm in Arizona, she grew up in the starkly beautiful shadows of the Sierra Estrella Mountains west of Phoenix. When her music-loving parents bought the six-year old Jeanne a piano, she could barely reach the keys. She made her professional debut at 14, and before she was 16, had graduated high school, and mastered six Mozart concertos. Ultimately she earned her music degree in Piano Performance from Indiana University & Arizona State University. With college behind her, the classically trained pianist was determined to make a career creating her own musical universe. Today her voice and music have friends all over the world. Newhall is based in Los Angeles, and her club, concert and festival schedule ensure her standing as a frequent flyer to Japan (6 tours), Singapore, London, and Athens. Her recordings have earned airplay on hundreds of radio stations throughout the globe. She's been a Steinway & Sons Piano Artist since 1998. A few years ago, Hal Leonard published Jeanne Newhall Piano Folio Songbook, a 70-page book featuring 14 of her original songs. An artist ever in transition, Jeanne Newhall makes words and music that possess the magic to affect, enrich and transform.
